9. Departmental Examinations and confirmations.—The following general instructions have been laid down to regulate the training, examination and confirmation of the apprentices.

(a) Except when an apprentice is allotted and posted to the Defence Audit Branch after the preliminary training [in which case, sub-clause (c) below will apply], an apprentice will be required on the satisfactory completion of the preliminary training to appear for Part I of the first S.A.S. Examination of the Civil, Postal or Railway Audit Branch, as the case may be, held under the regulations prescribed by the Comptroller and Auditor General. He should pass Part I before he takes Part II of the examination. Subject to the provision in sub-clause (d) below, he will be allowed two chances for each part of the examination. He will be eligible for confirmation in the S.A.S. on passing both parts of the examination, subject to satisfactory reports on his conduct and work generally.

(b) An apprentice is expected to pass both parts of the S.A.S. examination within a period not exceeding three years from the commencement of apprenticeship in order to be eligible for confirmation.

(c) If an apprentice is allotted and posted to the Defence Audit Branch on the satisfactory completion of the preliminary training, he will be required to appear for Parts I and II of the S.A.S. Examination held under the regulations prescribed by the Military Accountant General or such examinations in substitution thereof as may be prescribed by the Comptroller and Auditor General. He should pass Part I before he takes Part II of the examination. He will normally be allowed two chances for each part of the examination. He will be eligible for confirmation in the S.A.S. on passing both the parts, subject to satisfactory reports on his conduct and work generally.

(d) If an apprentice is unsuccessful at Part I of the S.A.S. Examination within the number of chances ordinarily allowed for it, or having passed Part I is unsuccessful in Part II of the Examination within the number of chances allowed for it, or exhausts the prescribed chances in either of the parts by omission to avail himself of any of the available chances, he shall revert as a clerk or be removed from service. The Comptroller and Auditor General, may, however, if he considers that there are special circumstances justifying the concession allow at his discretion one further chance in either or both of the parts and the apprentice's reversion or removal, as the case may be, shall then occur on his being unsuccessful in the additional attempt or if he fails to utilise the further chance granted.

If he is reverted as a clerk, his pay and position in the clerical grade will be determined by the Comptroller and Auditor General.

10. Posting.—The province of origin of an apprentice and his desire for posting to a particular province after the preliminary training will be taken into consideration in posting, but no assurance can be held out. On confirmation, a candidate will ordinarily be required to serve in the Accounts or Audit office in which he is confirmed. He will, however, be liable to transfer to any office under the control of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India. Candidates will also be liable to spells of overseas service for Audit and Accounts work.

11. Execution of a bond.—All apprentices at the time of appointment will be required to give an undertaking to the effect that during the period of their apprenticeship they will not apply for any appointment elsewhere or apply for any examination in respect of other posts under Government.

12. Scales of pay.—During training and so long as they are not confirmed, the apprentices will get a pay of Rs. 150/- p.m. plus the dearness and other allowances at the scales fixed by the Government of India from time to time.
